ERRATA .-- We omitted correcting some typographical errors in the article headed "Remarks of Mr. Archbold," which appeared in our last paper. In line 28th of the third paragraph, for "crops" read corps. Also in 34th line of same paragraph for "sell-interest" read self-interest.

We have been requested to publish the 22nd: the letters of Gov. Shannon and the Hon. T. W. Bartley, on the subject of the currency. They are almost to lengthy for our columns. We will probably we wish there was a democratic paper in every publish them soon.

Most of our readers will recollect the the anecdote told by the Whigs in 1840. about the quack doctor who was called to visit a patient, laboring under a disease with which he was unacquainted. The doctor doctored, and the patient grew worse; ontil at last the sick man fell into fits from the effects of the doctor's medicines. This only stimulated the doctor to extra exertions, for said he, 'I'm h-l for fits." This the Whigs applied to the Democrats who wished again to obtain the ascendency. But it strikes us that the comparison is more applicable at the present time; for the Whigs succeeded in 1840, and they tinkered, and tinkered, and tinkered at the government, until they have thrown it into the worst kind of "conniptions," and they now, like the quack doctor, want at it again, for they are "h-- l for

We clip the following from the "Demouratic Whig Standard" of Cadiz: The Spirit of Democracy," a locofoco paper published in dark Mouroe, "The darkest spot in Ohio" "The darkest spot in Ohio" has reached us. The editor makes a pitiful howl, because his brother of the quassi sheet wont exchange with him. Deluded man! just publish a true Whig paper and you'll have no cause to complain for want of exchanges."

The editor of the Whig is vastly mistaken, if he considers this county "the darkest spot in Ohio." Now we take itas indubitable evidence of the virtue. intelligence and honesty of the people of this county, that they battle manfully against all those measures which the Whig party advocate. That they oppose every thing calculated to bow down a free people to beck and nod of any set ofmen. Democracy is a native principle of the human heart, it | elevates the mind, and makes the citizen feel that he is one of the sovereigns of the land. Not so, whiggery. Federalism teaches its votaries to bow at of forming a HICKORY CLUB. Juphith Smith ard does to Henry Clay. If we see proper to complain of Col. Medary, (who, we suppose, is meant by the Standard,) it proves our independence, that we dare assert and maintain our

To of a Hickory Club; the committee to report at the court favor by changing our politics, is next meeting. Messrs. J. Kerr, Wm. C. Walton, not in our nature, however well it may suit the editor of the "Democratic Whig

Judging from the whole tenor of the article from the Standa d, we suppose the editor is just capable of writing such vulgarity, as was written on the margin of the first number of his paper that we received, and which was signed the "devil." We had thought that the editor was unacquainted with what was written on his paper, but we have changed our opinion. How would the Standard like to have that number of his paper forwarded to some of his subscribers, so that they might see if what was thereon written, is the true standard of their sentiments?

THE OHIO STATESMAN AND OURSELF. Our readers will recollect, that in our paper of the 22nd ult. was the following paragraph. "Does the Ohio Statesman suppose that it will lose some subscribers in this county, by our pub-lishing a paper here? Is that the reason we have received no exchanges from that quarter?"

On the 29th of the same month, just seven days after our paper was mailed to the Statesman, a friend handed us a copy of that paper containing the following, together with our remarks of

"Were we capable of such a base spirit, we should have about the same opinion of ourself that we have of the individual that could make the county in the State, with as many good paying sub-scribers as they could manage. Any one that sup-poses us capable of any other feeling, is either a stranger to us, or under strange influences. Thank God we were endowed with a more liberal and enlarged spirit, than ever to think for a moment of such considerations."

Now we ask our readers in all candor, is there any thing in our remarks THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY COU- that will justify the Statesman in charcause he thinks fit to pursue his own course, in relation to his worldly affairs. save to himself a few dollars, by withholding an exchange, he is not, there fore, liab'e to a charge of baseness. We admit, that, after some twenty days after our paper was mailed to the Statesman, we received three numbers of his paper in the same envellope, one of which contained a respectful notice of our paper. But how does it come, that it took twenty days for him to notice our paper and send us an exchange, when a reply could be received here in seven days? We can also inform the editor of the Statesman, that we receiv ed an exchange from Holly Springs, Mississippi, within three days of the same time, that we received the Statesman. Will the editor of the Statesman inform us, why we never received a number of his paper containing his reply to our note. The remarks of the editor of the Statesman, may have the effect to create an unfavorable impression towards us, where we are not nown; but we feel satisfied and are

MR. EDITOR .- I see the ' Whig Standard," sublished in Cadiz Ohio, has Henry Clay under the hammer at its most head. I suppose Mr. Clay is to be sold at public out-cry this time. Adams will give more than any one else. He gave a good price for him at private sale in 1824.

DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE FOR MONROE COUNTY.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

Monday Evening, April 1, 1844. Pursuant to previous notice a number of the democrats of Centre and adjoining townships met at the Court House in Woodsfield, for the purpose the shrine of one man, just as the Stand- was called to the Chair, and R. P. Yoho was appointed Secretary.

On motion, D. H. Wire Esq.was called on to state the objects of the meeting, who forcibly recommended the propriety of forming Hickory Clubs and a speedy and thorough organization of the Democratic party.

Messrs. J. H. Lewis, Wm. C. Walton, and Jas. M. Stout, were severally called on, and addressed the meeting.

On motion of Mr. J. Kerr, it was Resolved-That a committee of five be appointed to draught resolutions or laws for the government M. Morrow, J H. Lewis and Arthur Smith were appointed said committee. On motion, a committee of three were appointed to request speakers to address the Club on tomorrow evening.

On motion the meeting adjourned until to-morrow (Tuesday) evening.

JAPHETH SMITH, Pres't. R. P. Уоно, Sec'y.

Tuesday Evening April 2, 1844. The Club met pursuant to adjournment, M. Morrow was called to the Chair; and J. McConaghy appointed Secretary.

The committee heretofore appointed to prepare rules for the government of the Club, reported the Whereas, it is considered expedient to form Hickory Clubs, for the purpose of better uniting and harmonising the action of the Democratic party; and that it cannot be too strongly recommended to the Democracy in the several townships in this county, to effect a complete and thorough organization; and whereas it is well known that the Whig party are well organized, and that neither money nor zeal in behalf of their favorite, will be wanting in attempting to deceive the people into his support. Your committee would therefore recommend the formation of a Hickory Club in this place, and also in the several townships in this county; believing as they do, that powerful as our federal opponents seem to be, we have only to make good use of our legitimate and only proper arms-truth and argument-to defeat and scatter their forces. Your Committee further recommed, the adoption of the following rules for the government of this Club: 1st. This Club shall be called the Woodsfield Hickory Club.

2nd. The officers of this Club shall be a Presdent, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Assistant

3d. The President shall be elected monthly. and if present, shall preside at all meetings of the Club. In his absence, the Vice President shall
